Dear Mr. Goldman: It was great to speak with you yesterday. As I had anticipated, I had a telephone conference with attorney Sánchez this morning to set a tentative deposition schedule. Mrs. Grzan will not testify, has no personal knowledge of the case and hence we'll not take her deposition. Your deposition is tentatively scheduled for May 19th. Since you cannot travel, I recommend that I travel to Vermont to prep you and sit at your side to defend the deposition, then return to San Juan to take Mr. Grzan's deposition May 23rd. I assume there is a lawyer's office in Montpellier that can accommodate us the day of your deposition. I have a status conference with Judge Delgado on May 6th at 4:00 p.m. by videoconference and the discovery conclusion deadline is May 31st, 2022. Thanks for you taking care of the invoices for our services. I'll confirm when we receive the check. I trust your upcoming tests are uneventful.
